(3) In determining the profits of a place of business, there shall be allowed as deduction expenses which are incurred for the purposes of exercising its activity including executive and general administrative expenses so incurred whether in the State in which the place of business is situated or elsewhere.

(5) The provisions of this Article will not affect the provisions for taxation stipulated in the other Articles of this Agreement.

(6) An enterprise that is a resident of one of the Contracting States shall not be deemed to have a place of business in the other Contracting State merely because it carries on business in that other State through a broker, general commission agent or any other agent of independent status, provided that such persons are acting in the ordinary course of their business.

(2) Salaries, wages and other similar remunerations paid to a resident of a Contracting State by that State or by an enterprise resident in that State in respect of a temporary assignment in the other Contracting State shall be taxable only in the first mentioned State unless they are borne by a fixed place of business situated in that other State.

In such a case the provisions of Article 4 or Article 12, as the case may be, shall apply.

(5) Where a company which is a resident of a Contracting State derives profits or income from the other Contracting State, that other State may not impose any tax on the dividends paid by the company except insofar as such dividends are paid to a resident of that other State or insofar as the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with a place of business or a fixed base situated in that other State, nor subject the company's undistributed profits to a tax on the company's undistributed profits, even if the dividends paid or the undistributed profits consist wholly or partly of profits or income arising in such other State.

(1) Where a resident of the People's Republic of Bulgaria derives income from Malta, not being income from dividends, paid by a resident of Malta to a resident of the People's Republic of Bulgaria, and if this income has been taxed in Malta, then the People's Republic of Bulgaria shall exempt it from taxation.

(3) The tax paid in respect of the income from royalties and licenses according to Article 11, paragraph (2) shall be deducted from the tax levied in the People's Republic of Bulgaria.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (1), where, by reason of special incentive measures designed to promote economic development in Malta, Malta tax has been wholly relieved or reduced for a limited period of time then the amount of tax paid in Malta shall be deemed to be the amount that would have been payable had no such relief been given or no such reduction allowed.

II. In the case of Malta, double taxation shall be eliminated as follows:

(5) Subject to the provisions of the law of Malta regarding the allowance of a credit against Malta tax in respect of foreign tax where, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, there is included in a Malta assessment income from sources within the People's Republic of Bulgaria, the Bulgarian tax on such income shall be allowed as a credit against the relative Malta tax payable thereon.

(6) Taxes paid by residents of Malta in respect of profits from their participation in partnership for joint business activity, joint management and distribution of the profits and losses from it and formed according to Decree No. 535-80 of the State Council of the People's Republic of Bulgaria, shall be deducted against the respective Malta tax in an amount that would have been payable had not such reliefs been given with this Decree.

ARTICLE 18

Non-discrimination

(1) Nationals of a Contracting State or juridical persons under Article 1 of the Agreement shall not be subjected in the other Contracting State to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which nationals of that other State in the same circumstances are or may be subjected. This provision shall, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1, also apply to persons who are not residents of one or both of the Contracting States.

(2) A place of business situated in one Contracting State and belonging to a resident of the other Contracting State shall not be subjected in the first-mentioned State to any taxation which is other or more burdensome than the taxation to which are subjected places of business situated in the first-mentioned State and organised by persons who are residents of either State. This provision shall not be construed as obliging a Contracting State to grant to residents of the other Contracting State any personal allowances, reliefs and reductions for taxation purposes on account of civil status or family responsibilities or any other personal circumstances which it grants to its own residents.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2, this Article covers taxes of every kind and description.

Any information or materials received by a Contracting State shall be treated as secret in the same manner as information obtained under the domestic laws of that State and shall be used only for the purposes of this Agreement.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be construed so as to impose on either Contracting State the obligation:

(a) to carry out administrative measures at variance with laws and administrative practice prevailing in either Contracting State;

(b) to supply information which is not obtainable under the laws or in the normal course of the administration of either Contracting State;

(c) to supply information which would disclose any trade, business, industrial or professional secret or process, or information the disclosure of which would be contrary to public policy (ordre public).

If the competent authority is itself unable to arrive at a satisfactory solution, it will endeavour to resolve the case by an agreement with the other Contracting State, with a view to the avoidance of taxation not in accordance with this Agreement. Any agreement shall be implemented notwithstanding any time limits in the domestic law of the Contracting States.

(2) The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall endeavour to resolve by mutual agreement any difficulties or doubts arising as to the interpretation or application of the Agreement. They may also consult together for the elimination of double taxation in cases not provided for in the Agreement.

(3) The competent authorities of the Contracting States may communicate with each other for the purpose of reaching an agreement in the sense of the preceding paragraphs.

ARTICLE 22

This Agreement shall remain in force until denounced by one of the Contracting states. Either Contracting State may denounce this Agreement through diplomatic channels, by giving notice of termination not later than six months before the end of any calendar year beginning after the expiration of three years from the date of its entry into force. In such event, this Agreement will be applied for the last time in respect to taxes levied on income or gains arising during the calendar year in which the notice is given.
